

Good Neighbor Western Montana — Terms of Use & Privacy Policy

Last updated: September 2026

This page explains how Good Neighbor Western Montana (goodneighbormt.com) handles visitor information and the terms under which the site is provided. The site is operated by Glacier Country Regional Tourism Commission (“Glacier Country,” “we,” “us,” or “our”). It is informational only — we do not sell products or services, run contests, or operate a paid membership.

Terms of Use

By using this site, you agree to use it for lawful purposes. We may update these terms from time to time; the version posted is the current one.

Content and Copyright. Text, images, and other materials on this site are protected by copyright. You may view, download, and print content for personal, non-commercial, or educational use, provided you keep copyright notices intact and credit goodneighbormt.com as the source. Other uses require our written permission.

Trademarks. “Good Neighbor Western Montana” and associated marks are trademarks of Glacier Country Regional Tourism Commission. Other marks appearing on the site belong to their respective owners.

Accuracy. We work to keep information current, but conditions, regulations, and contact details change over time. Please verify time-sensitive information directly with the source. We make no warranty as to accuracy or completeness and are not responsible for errors or omissions.

Third-Party Links. This site links to other websites operated by government agencies, nonprofits, and private businesses. We are not responsible for the content, accuracy, or privacy practices of those sites.

Privacy Policy

What we collect. When you visit the site, we automatically collect basic technical information through standard server logs and analytics tools (IP address, browser type, device type, pages viewed, date and time). We may use cookies to understand how visitors use the site; you can disable cookies through your browser settings. The site includes a contact form. If you use it, we receive the information you provide (such as your name, email address, and message) so we can respond. We do not add submitters to any mailing list and do not use submitted information for marketing.

How we use it. To operate and improve the site, to understand how visitors use it, to respond to messages submitted through the contact form, and to comply with applicable law. We do not sell personal information. We do not share personal information with third parties for their marketing purposes. We share information only with service providers who help us operate the site (such as our website host and analytics provider) as needed for them to provide services to us, or when required by law.

Children. This site is not directed to children under 13, and we do not knowingly collect personal information from children under 13.

Your choices and rights. You may browse the site without providing any personal information. If you have submitted the contact form and want us to delete the information you provided, write to us at the address below. Where state or federal privacy laws apply to us based on the personal data we collect through this site, residents may have rights such as the right to access, correct, or delete personal information we hold about them. To exercise any such rights, write to us at the address below.

Retention and security. We keep personal information only as long as needed for the purposes above or as required by law. We use reasonable security measures, but no system is fully secure and internet transmissions are not guaranteed private.

Changes. We may update this policy from time to time. The “Last updated” date above reflects the most recent change.

Contact

For questions about this policy or about information on the site, please use the contact link at goodneighbor.mt.com/contact. Clicking the link opens a secure form; submitting the form sends your message to a monitored address. To reduce the risk of phishing and email address harvesting, this site does not display direct email addresses. If you prefer to contact us by mail, write to:
